April 2: THE NO. 1 LADIES' DETECTIVE AGENCY
by Alexander McCall Smith

A charming story, the first in Smith's widely acclaimed series featuring Precious Ramotswe, who opens her agency in a small storefront in Gabarone, Botswana, to 'help people with problems in their lives.'

The book is available in bookstores (new and used), thrift shops, public libraries, and on line. Perhaps you will want to read some of the other books in this series.

From Publisher Weekly:

This first novel in Alexander McCall Smith's widely acclaimed The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency series tells the story of the delightfully cunning and enormously engaging Precious Ramotswe, who is drawn to her profession to "help people with problems in their lives." "No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency" serve not only to entertain but to explore conditions in Botswana in a way that is both penetrating and light.

The No. 1 Ladies' Detective Agency received two Booker Judges' Special Recommendations and was voted one of the International Books of the Year and the Millennium by the Times Literary Supplement.

April 2012

April 1 PALM SUNDAY THE END IN THE BEGINNING
Let's be honest...Palm Sunday seems like a cosmic joke: the rag tag procession, a peasant king on a donkey. The political and religious powers had to laugh. But perhaps they laughed too soon.

High Anxiety and an Empty Tomb

It has been said that anxiety and despair can turn otherwise faithful Christians into "foxhole atheists." We imagine the worst and decide that there is nothing even God can do. But then the stone is rolled away from the tomb...

WILL BE OUR GUEST PREACHER THIS SUNDAY.

April 22 EARTH DAY ON THE OTHER HAND. . .
How tempting it is to treat nature and the creatures with which we share this earth as mindless machines, here for our use. But on the other hand...have you ever watched a hawk high in the sky?
Psalm 8 MUSIC BY THE NEW BAND Rev. Nelson

April 29 THE SHEPHERD AND HIS SHEEP
Jesus, the good shepherd who knows his sheep and his sheep know him. A comforting and reassuring word to be sure, but do I really need a shepherd? I think I can take pretty good care of myself.

How to Survive a Heart Attack When You Are Alone

Hopefully no one will encounter this situation, but just in case...

You are alone. Maybe at home, maybe driving in your car... suddenly you begin to feel faint or experience severe pain in your chest that starts to radiate into your arm or up into your jaw. What can you do?

Many people are alone when they suffer a heart attack. Without help, you may only have seconds before losing consciousness.

You can help yourself by coughing repeatedly and very vigorously. A deep breath should be taken before each cough. The cough must be deep and prolonged as when producing sputum from deep inside the chest.

A breath and cough must be repeated about every two seconds without let up until medical help arrives. Deep breaths get oxygen into the lungs and the vigorous coughing movements squeeze the heart and keep the blood circulating. The squeezing pressure on the heart also can help it regain normal rhythm.

Taking this action can help a heart attack victim get to a phone and call for help between breaths and coughs.

USING A CELL PHONE TO CALL FOR HELP

Calling for help from a cell phone is different than calling from a land line. Although you can dial 911 on your cell phone, you will reach a central dispatcher who may not be able to pinpoint your location, may need to transfer your call and help could be delayed. Instead, if using a cell phone to call for help, call these numbers for emergency services in your area:

Sonoma County 565-2121
Sebastopol 829-4400
Santa Rosa 528-5222
Rohnert Park 584-2611
Cotati 792-4611

PALM SUNDAY – APRIL 1
BRING A FRIEND SUNDAY

This year in The Community Church, Palm Sunday will also be Bring A Friend Sunday. All church members and friends are encouraged to invite a friend or family to church on that Sunday, April 1. Our Palm Sunday service will be a “visitor friendly” service. Extra ushers will be available to welcome people, additional volunteers will be in our church nursery and church school to help with increased numbers of children, and extra newsletters and visitors bags will be available. During worship, we will have the Palm Processional led by our Children’s Choir and both the Children’s Choir and Chancel Choir will provide special music. All necessary words will be printed in the bulletin. And Rev. Nelson promises an uplifting sermon!

And there will be more special events following worship. There will be coffee in the courtyard and all children will be invited to participate in our annual Easter Egg hunt. And after that, all are invited to the annual Pasta Lunch fundraiser for our Senior High Youth. And, as an added bonus, all first time visitors and families can share in the luncheon free of charge.

Special visitor tickets will be available.

All of us know someone, know a family, who we believe would enjoy being a part of our church community, if only they could get to know us. This is an opportunity to share our church with a friend. No high pressure...simply an invitation to share a special Sunday morning together.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

For the month of February, our operating expenses exceeded income by $2600. This means we finished the month with an operating deficit of $9244. Actually, both pledge and plate income have been strong, pledge income actually slightly over projections. But administrative expenses have exceeded projections. Some of those expenses are quarterly costs which will even out over the year.

But there is good news to report on pledges. As of March 21, our operating pledge total is $266,784. So, over the next ten months, if income even comes close to this pledged amount, church finances should remain strong.

Building Update

The good news is that the Sebastopol building department has approved our plans, so we are finished with all city reviews. A building permit will soon be paid for and issued. Bids from sub-contractors are now being received by our general contractor, McDevitt and McDevitt. When all bids are received, which will be before the first of April, the general contractor will review them with our church building committee. This review may happen before you have received this newsletter. A final contract will be signed and we will be ready to break ground. Once that date is set, you will all be informed. Building plans are available in the church office if you would like to take a look.

Your building pledge is needed and can be paid! Please send your check to the church and make a notation “Building Fund” so we are sure to apply the funds correctly. If you have any questions about your building pledge, or would like to make a building pledge, please call Katherine in the church office at 823-2484 ext 13 or send an email: financial@uccseb.org.

Forty years of making pies is monumental and the Apple Pie Committee would like to celebrate with a commemorative Community Church of Sebastopol

We would also like to collect pictures of years past and present making pies to put in the cookbook. Bring your recipes and pictures to the church office or email your recipes to Kathy Matthies at kathleenmatthies@yahoo.com. Add your name and phone number to your pictures and recipes so we can return your pictures safely and give you credit for your wonderful apple recipe. We plan on having the cookbooks ready for next year's Gravenstein Apple Fair – all proceeds will benefit our Camp Scholarship program.

Minister of Music, Brian Plaughter requests that you take a few moments and jot down the titles of your favorite hymns to help with future worship planning. Please leave this in the collection plate or in the church office.

Rebuilding Together

APRIL, 28, 2012

This year's Rebuilding Together day is Saturday, April 28th. In the past, our church has joined with the Rotary Club of Sebastopol in a one day rehab of the house of a low income senior or person with a disability. This year we have a house in Sebastopol. It will require some significant yard clean-up, some painting, electrical work, gutter and skylight repair, electrical work on the kitchen lights and other odds and ends. Volunteer forms are in the church office. See Rev. Nelson or Tom Dilley for further information. The goal is to complete the work on one Saturday.

We also need volunteers to help prepare lunches for the work crews. If you can help prepare lunches, please call the church office at 823-2484 or email: office@uccseb.org to sign up. Lunches will be prepared in Memorial Hall on the morning of Saturday, April 28.

COMMUNITY CHURCH OF SEBASTOPOL

Women's Summerr Retreat 2012
DISCOVERING THE DIVINE IN OUR LIVES
FRIDAY, JULY 20TH – SUNDAY, JULY 22ND
at Camp Tuolumne Trails, Groveland, CA

DISTANCE: Yes, Groveland is a ways, takes approximately 4 to 4 ½ hours. PLEASE DON'T STAY AWAY BECAUSE OF THE DISTANCE . . . it is about the JOURNEY, not the destination!

We went to this camp in 2010 and it worked quite well. Carpools will leave from the church on Friday. Drivers will be reimbursed at an amount to be announced later.

It is a wonderful trip—especially when made with friends, old and new. Some women last year took their lunch and ate at a park along the way, others at a restaurant. On Sunday, one car stopped for ice cream and also found a wonderful restaurant in Lodi for an early dinner.

FACILITATOR: Rev. Lizann Bassham is the Director of Front Porch Spirit. She is an author, playwright, songwriter, and currently working on a poetry series titled "In Praise of Aging". Once, quite by accident, she won a salsa dance contest in East Los Angeles!

THEME: Where do you encounter the Divine: Within yourself? Reflected in the faces of others? Permeating the whole of creation? Come spend a weekend discovering and naming the presence of the Divine in your life. Our journey of discovery will happen through personal reflection, small and large group sharing, laughter, worship, all in the middle of one of the most beautiful settings in the world.

FEE: Your fee for the weekend is $130, including transportation. The actual cost per person is $160.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Scholarships are available for anyone for whom the fee is a hardship. Contact Nancy Shimetz at 823-4242. Scholarship information is kept confidential.

SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY: Some retreat participants plan on going a day early—spend Thursday night at Tuolumne Trails and go to Yosemite on Friday. Lodging for Thursday night is $42 (food not included), which brings the total retreat fee to $172.00. There is a limit to the number who can go early so if you are interested call or email Nancy Shimetz as soon as possible.

QUESTIONS OR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: Nancy at 823-4242; Gail at 829-2503; Lisa at 529-0771 or Emily at 823-5998
