From the Pastor

As I write this, Kristen and our senior high youth and advisors are preparing to depart on their spring mission trip to Boston. I am reminded of a mission trip story told by a pastor: "I was urging one of our high school students to go on the church spring mission trip. She had initially shown some interest. Her sister had gone with us some years before and I was eager for her to go as well. When I finally got back in touch with her, I was surprised to hear her say, 'I'm not going on any mission trip. I've decided. That's that. I am not going!'"

" 'May I ask why?'"

" 'Because Jane went with you, and it totally destroyed her life. When she came back from working with the poor, she wasn't the same person. She completely changed the course of her life. It disrupted our family, upset our parents, and things have never been the same again. I just don't want to bring that much disruption into our family.'" Says the pastor, "It was one of the best reasons I have ever heard for not going on a church mission trip." God forbid that we take the risk of allowing ourselves to be changed or our lives to be disrupted.

I have always found it interesting that the primary emotion expressed on that first Easter was not joy, not amazement, not surprise, but fear. The first encounter with the empty tomb produces fear. And I think I understand why. As sad and devastating as Jesus' death was for his followers, at least it was something they could understand. They could deal with death. But resurrection, new life, an explosion of life that not even death can overcome...how do you deal with that? It's one thing to grieve over a dead body in a tomb. But a living Lord now at large in the world, a living Lord who just might encounter us anytime and anywhere, a living Lord who might be interested in changing and disrupting our comfortable lives? Again, how do we deal with that?

Easter has passed and our new Pilgrim Center is up and running. I truly believe a new chapter in our life together is opening before us. I hope we are ready for and open to whatever disrupting surprises Christ might have in store for us.

APRIL SERMON THEME: TIES THAT BIND

April 14

TIES THAT BIND:

BOTHERED BY JESUS

It's always tempting, especially for a preacher, to sit down, put up one's feet and sigh, "At last, Easter is over." Trouble is, no one seems to have shared that information with Jesus. He seems to want to stay connected with us.

John 21:1-19

Rev. Nelson

April 21

Integrity of Creation Sunday

TIES THAT BIND: BEHOLD THE HIPPO

Scripture tells us that all of creation, every creature, reflects back something of the love of God. How is our relationship to creation a mirror of God's love for that same creation?

Job 40: 15-24

Rev. Nelson

April 28

TIES THAT BIND:

THE PHYSICS OF COMMUNION

It has been said that in the early 21st century, theologians are sounding more like scientists and scientists more like theologians. Peter's mystical vision would seem to confirm that.

Acts 11:1-18

Rev. Nelson

New members will be received into The Community Church on Sunday, April 21. On April 14th, following worship, there will be meeting in the Fireside Room for all those interested in church membership. If you are interested in church membership or learning more about the Community Church, please contact the church office at 823-2484 or office@uccseb.org.

A SHARING WITH THOSE IN NEED

Last year was a busy one for our Community Church Parish Care volunteers. The group prepared and delivered over 60 meals, transported Parish members on 12 occasions, primarily to medical appointments, mailed cards and visited with Parish members, referred 3 handymen, and one caregiver.

Many thanks to the Parish Care coordinators: Evelyn Bishop, Harry Sullivan, Josephine Weigel, Sharon Olson, and Barbara Whitson for their continued gift of time facilitating Parish Care during this busy year. And we welcome two new coordinators to Parish Care: Norma Watson and Barbara Walton joined the group this spring.

Many thanks to the following retiring coordinators who have given so much time of their time and energy to Parish Care: Margarett Murakami, Glenda Elvy, and Corrine Kauwe. Thank you for your service!

If you like to cook, make new friends, or can provide transportation for our church members, then Parish Care can use you as an active volunteer. Sign up forms are available in the church office, or call Barbara Whitson at 707 322 2012.

APRIL 21 AND APRIL 28

On April 21 and April 28, the Parish Care Coordinators will be in the courtyard following worship to collect your emergency contact information. On more than one occasion this information has proved a valuable tool for our ministers.

Please take a few moments after church to fill out the emergency contact information form. Or get a head start and use the form in this newsletter and look for the Parish Care Coordinators after church on April 21 and 28.

MISSION & OUTREACH

Mission & Outreach meets on the third Monday of the month, meeting next on April 15 at 7 PM in the Fireside Room.

ADULT MISSION TRIP FOR 2013

9:30 AM Meeting April 7 Before Worship

A work group of 13 have signed up from the Community Church to travel to Henryville, Indiana, to help with tornado clean up and reconstruction with the UCC Disaster Response Team. Few buildings in Henryville were left standing after a storm that was part of a series of seven tornadoes swept through five Midwest states in March 2012. The group will be staying at a local fire house in Henryville, about 60 miles north of Louisville, KY. The trip is scheduled for June 16-22, 2013.

There will be an important Adult Mission Trip meeting before church in the media Room on April 7 at 9:30 AM. Please call Joyce Cox - 829-0750 for more information.

MISSION & OUTREACH PROVIDES FOR SR. HIGH MISSION TRIP

Members of Mission & Outreach packed a selection of snacks, fresh fruits and goodies to send with the Sr. High youth on their early morning departure to Boston. The youth will report on their mission trip during worship on April 7.

SACK LUNCHES

Did you know the Community Church also provides sack lunches each Friday to our homeless population? Sack lunches are offered out of the Christian church kitchen each day of the week, prepared by different churches and individuals. If you would like to help with this project, contact Chris Jenkins at 829-2230. If you are not available to help with preparations, your cash donations are also greatly appreciated.

MISSION & OUTREACH

THE HUMAN RACE

Mission & Outreach will participate in the Human Race on May 5, raising funds for Restorative Justice Resources. You are invited to participate in the walk/run too! You can also help by sponsoring the Mission & Outreach team – look for sponsor sheets in the church office as we get closer to the May event.

RECYCLE EMPTY INK JET CARTRIDGES

Leave your empty inkjet cartridges in the cardboard box in the church office and Mission & Outreach will be able to turn them into cash to help fund our pledge to Habitat for Humanity. Please bring the cartridges in a sealed plastic baggie and Mission & Outreach will take care of the rest. What could be easier! Hundreds of dollars have been generated from your empty cartridges for this project. For a list of accepted empty cartridges, please see the list in the church office or call Karin in the office at 823-2484.

SATURDAY TABLE

On the second Saturday of each month, Mission & Outreach serves lunch in Memorial Hall to our local homeless population. In addition to offering a hot meal, we also offer showers. If you would like to contribute to this effort, there are several ways to help:

- ❖ Cash and check can be made out to the Community Church and designated for the homeless lunch
- ❖ Thick tube socks, warm clothing – sweat pants, sweat shirts, jackets, etc.
- ❖ Tarps, rain ponchos, back packs, small tents
- ❖ LED flashlights and AAA batteries

These items do not have to be new, but they must be usable and clean. Look for the collection bin in the church entry to drop off your donations. Monetary donations should be left in the church office. For more information or to volunteer, contact Joanne Matson at 823-5249 or the church office at 823-2484.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

While income for February was certainly an improvement over January, we still fell short of matching our expenses. February expenses exceeded income by $2500, leaving us with a two month operating deficit of $14,789. Both pledge income and facility use income are behind our projections, while plate income has been very strong. After two months, total operating expenses were $1600 over our projections.

The good financial news is that our operating pledge total increased to $266,325. This figure represents 128 households bring us to within $4700 of our pledge goal for the year.
