From the Pastor

I am going to commit a ministerial sin and repeat a story I shared on Easter, a story shared by a pastor: “The week after Easter I was talking with a troubled soul, a member of our church. He asked me, ‘Preacher, do you really think that I can ever get a grip on my addiction to heroin?’ I almost responded, ‘No, almost no one ever gets that monkey completely off his back. I don’t really think you can beat this.’

“But then I remembered that we were in the season immediately after Easter – Eastertide – that time when the church keeps insisting that we tell the story of Christ’s resurrection as our story, as a truthful account of what is really going on in the world. So I responded, ‘You know, if this were just about you or even the two of us working together, the answer is ‘No, you can’t get better.’ Fortunately, in the afterglow of Easter, this is about God, about God’s determination to free you and give you the life God intends for you. Now that Jesus is risen, there is always hope for us.’”

The crowds are gone, the magnificent notes of the “Hallelujah Chorus” have faded away, even the lily blossoms are starting to turn brown. Yes, Easter must be over. Now what do we do? Interestingly, the Gospel of John tells us that after that first Easter Sunday, Peter and a few of the other disciples went fishing. (I always liked Peter!) “Well, Easter was wonderful to be sure, but now it’s over and you can’t squeeze a lifetime out of one moment, so I think I’ll go fishing.”

But then who do they meet, there on the beach, cooking breakfast for them? Yes, their risen Lord. And what does he say to them? “Tend my lambs and feed my sheep.” It is time to turn the enthusiasm and hope of Easter into concrete acts of caring, peacemaking and grace. That is both the great problem and great hope of Easter. We enjoy the celebration but then would kind of like to return to the same old world But guess what? The old has passed away, the new has come, and we have holy work to do – work worth living and dying for.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

The month of March proved to be a good one when it comes to church finances. Operating receipts exceeded expenses by $3500. This still left us with an operating deficit of $4200, but at least we are trending in a positive direction. Pledge receipts remained strong, ahead of projections by $2000, Plate receipts also improved, but are still almost $5000 below our three month projections. Facility use receipts were also strong. On the expense side, we finished the month about $3300 under projections. All in all, a good month financially. Thank you for your faithfulness.

ADULT WORK GROUP TO NEW JERSEY

Look for the Mission Trip group at the Garage Sale on May 3 in the Danmar parking lot to raise funds to help off-set expenses for the work group traveling to New Jersey.

Moderator's Musings....

Kudos to Chris and her committee that planned our participation in the Apple Blossom Parade. Marie Cotton did a fabulous job creating the ark with props provided by Mat Keller and Gail Thomas and Kathy hunting down decorations for the vehicles. We must find other opportunities to display the parade ark! Bobbie, Chris and Steve all looked stunning in their period attire. Thank you to Rachel and Karin for designing and producing the postcards describing our church; to Joyce and Dorothy for the sign boards; to all those who wore the sign boards and passed out the postcards. Thank you to Joanne and Tom for driving our two floats; to the Dixieland jazz band who put a bounce and a wiggle in our step walking down Main Street, and to Andy and his students who helped get the piano on the truck. Thank you to Dakota, Casey, Amanda, Emma, Libby, Benjamin, Olivia, Tamar and Will representing the youth of our church. If I forgot someone, I'm sorry. It took all of us to pull this off.

It was wonderful to hear non-members clapping for us when we were announced. And the adults who reached out their hands to receive our postcards gave me the sense that they were really interested in learning more about us.

One of our goals during this 125th anniversary year is to make our presence better known in the community- our doors are open. Now we all have a responsibility to extend that welcome. If you see someone at church you don't know – go over and talk with them and introduce them to others. We know we have a great church – let's prove it. It takes ALL of us to extend the welcome.

- Jane Huneke

ADULT EDUCATION SUNDAY MORNING CLASS CONTINUES

Please join us Sundays at 9:30 in the Fireside Room for coffee and to discuss the scripture chosen for the sermon. We will begin the discussion with a brief insight into the pastor's view of the passage and pose questions for the group. We will read the passage, discuss it, and then listen to the Sunday sermon with a little more insight and hear what the pastor has to say. You don't need to be a Bible scholar, just have the desire to delve into the Bible, one scripture at a time.

Baked Goods for Sunday Coffee Hour

We need to stock up with goodies to share during our Coffee Hour! If you have cookies, cake or some kind of treat we can serve after church, please bring it by the church wrapped for the freezer and we can save it for next Sunday. Thanks!

125TH ANNIVERSARY- QUASQUICENTENNIAL 1889-2014

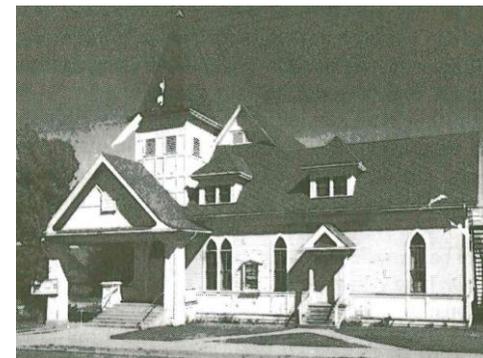

Each month of this 125th Anniversary year, the Quasquicentennial Committee will include some bit of interesting church history in the monthly newsletters. This month we have notes from the first full-time minister, the Rev. C.C. Kirtland (1897-1901). The excerpts below are from his diary provided by his daughter, Mrs. Gentry of Monterey Ca.

- April 8, 1897 - Accepted the call to become pastor of the Congregational Church of Sebastopol. The salary to be $800.00 per year.
- May 1, 1897 - Left S.F. 3:30, arrived Sebastopol 6:30. A delegation of 10 or 12 met me at the train. I went to the home of Dr. Hulbert where I am to live.
- May 2, 1897- Preached in the morning to a full house. In the evening the house was packed.
- June 1897-1899 - Records of Pastoral calls, bicycle calls and buying a horse and buggy. Records of daily routine, social affairs, sermons and meetings. One or two references to Church Building Fund.
- May 2, 1900 - Drove to Santa Rosa. Talked to Mr. Kirby, architect concerning church building.
- May 6, 1900 - Preached Text Ps. 127:1. It was an anniversary sermon being the beginning of my fourth year as a pastor of the Sebastopol Church. I urged the need of a new church and called a meeting of the Church for next Wednesday night to consider it.
- May 9, 1900 - After a brief prayer, we turned to the business of church building. The sketch plans which Mr. Kirby had drawn were considered and discussed and changes made. The Church voted to build. Mr. George McFarlane and Mr. Alex Ragle were appointed as a building committee. The outlook seems bright.
- May 19, 1900 - Received plans and specifications for proposed Church from Mr. Kirby.
- May 21, 1900 - Paid the tax on our Church lots: $1.85.

- May 23, 1900 - The rough estimate which the architect made on our plans for new church was $4,000.00. This was far beyond our means, so having conferred with two of our building committee, I went to Santa Rosa and had another conference with the architect. We cut things down considerably and he thinks now he can get it within the limit between $2,000.00 and $2,500.00.
- May 31, 1900 - Instructed Mr. Kirby to go ahead and make permanent plans. Arranged to hold Sunday services in Oddfellows Hall while constructing church. Mid-week meetings at different homes.
- September 23, 1900 - Laid corner stone for our new church in afternoon. In corner stone was placed the minutes of the meetings held in which we voted to build, etc., and the consideration of plans. Also a copy of each of our papers "The Analy Blanchard" and "The Sebastopol Times". Also a copy of the papers made out deeding the lot which is now a part of the extension (sic) of South Main Street which was first purchased by the church and deeded in trust to Mr. E. W. Hayden.
- February 3, 1901 - Sunday. We held services in our new church for the first time today. Members of the congregation cleaned the whole building, placed the seats and put carpet down.

FAITH IN TRANSITION: A RETREAT FOR ALL WOMEN

FRIDAY, JULY 18TH – SUNDAY, JULY 20TH

MARCONI CONFERENCE CENTER, TOMALES BAY

How can our faith support us as we move through life's transitions? Come explore spiritual methods of healing and transformation to support you on your journey. The weekend begins with Friday dinner and ends after lunch on Sunday. There are a few openings for Saturday only.

The time at retreat is yours to do as you wish. Nothing is mandatory! Sessions are no longer than 1-1/2 to 2 hours, with breaks and lots of interaction with others or alone time. Free time is just that, free. Free to hike, sleep, chat, and there are always table games with lots of fun and laughter.

FACILITATOR: Rachel Knuth is our facilitator for the weekend. She has a Master of Divinity Degree from Union Theological Seminary in NYC, and is Approved for Ordination Pending Call in the UCC. She currently serves as the Director of Children's Ministry at our church. Rachel enjoys looking for the sacred in everyday life, participating in worship, and exploring prayer. She is also the mother of four young children.

WELCOME: We welcome all women to this retreat—members and friends of our church family and their friends and families—and look forward to spending a wonderful weekend with you. Please feel free to contact us if you have questions.

FACILITY: Marconi Conference Center is a 62-acre State Historic Park located along the east shore of Tomales Bay. Gentle walking paths and footbridges connect the different parts of the property. The accommodations are hotel quality. The rooms are varied: some are double occupancy, some are triple; one is a single room.

FINANCES: The weekend FEE of $235 per person includes 6 meals, the facilitator and facility. This is a subsidized amount as the actual cost for the weekend is $362 per person. If you are able to attend Saturday only, the fee is $75.

SCHOLARSHIPS are available for ANYONE (you don't have to be part of the church family) who wishes to attend. Due to rising facility costs, the retreat fund is falling a little short. Scholarships will be limited to a maximum of $185. Payment of your portion can be made monthly so long as it is paid prior to the next retreat. Those who receive a scholarship will be asked to participate in one or more fundraising events. Scholarship information is kept confidential. Contact Nancy Shimetz nshimetz@gmail.com (823.4242 or 707.695.7845 text/voice).
