From the Pastor

An Advent Reflection from Madeleine L'Engle: "First Coming":

*God did not wait till the world was ready, till...nations were at peace.
God came when the Heavens were unsteady, and prisoners cried out for release.
God did not wait for the perfect time, God came when the need was deep and great.
God dined with sinners in all their grime, turned water into wine. God did not wait till hearts were pure. In joy God came to a tarnished world of sin and doubt.
To a world like ours God came, and God's Light would not go out.
We cannot wait till the world is sane to raise our songs with joyful voice.
For to share our grief, to touch our pain, God came with Love:
Rejoice! Rejoice!*

"God did not wait..." I suspect that as we get nearer to December 25th, many of us – and that would include me – are going to feel that we are not ready. So much to do - so little time. We are not ready for this! Says one poet – "Time running out, money running out, patience running out." But Christmas doesn't seem to care if we are ready or not. It is not bound by our schedules. It refuses to wait... God refuses to wait. And just maybe that is good news.

Says one colleague, "In memory, we lace the Christmas story with angelic choirs, softly lowing cattle and attentive shepherds. That is the poetry by which, quite rightly, we remember Christmas. But what really happened, happened as all things usually happen – in the midst of the hustle and bustle, the grit and grime, of everyday life."

It just might be that there is no perfect time when we are "ready" for Christmas. There are no ideal conditions for encountering God. The message of Christmas is that we shall either be alert for signs of the holy in the commonplace or we might miss it altogether. We shall see God in simple things – like the birth of a baby or at a noisy family table – or we may not see God at all. God will find us where we are – at Christmas or any other time of the year. The poet again:

*Wise men still watch and wonder
And pause to look for the stars in people's eyes,
And to listen for angel-singing in the night.
O, let us busy ones wise up and watch for joy again!*

Gene

ADVENT SPIRAL

DECEMBER 6 • 5 AND 6 PM

Children, youth and adults are invited to participate in our lovely Advent Spiral in the Chapel on Sunday, December 6th.

All are welcome to participate in the church-wide intergenerational Advent Spiral. We will offer two seatings this year: 5pm and 6pm, with 20 slots in each seating. Please RSVP to the church office at 823-2484 ext.100 or by email: office@uccseb.org .

This is a prayerful meditative walk to prepare our hearts for Advent. The ritual calls forth in all of us the seeking of light—in going to our very center, we discover the light and take it out to share it with others.

Please come ready to participate in a quiet walking meditation as we begin our Advent season.

CHRISTMAS EVE PAGEANT!

Save the dates! We will have 2 practices for our Christmas Eve

Pageant: Sunday, December 13th and Sunday, December 20th, after church (approx. 12-1pm), with lunch provided. If you have a child or youth who would like to participate, please let Rachel Knuth know-- we will be assigning parts in early December and getting our angels and shepherds all lined up!

Also, if you'd like to help with ritual arts/worship planning for the Christmas Eve Family Service, please contact Rachel Knuth. She's especially looking for someone who can help with lighting!
RachelKnuth@uccseb.org.

Blessing of the Wreaths ALL CHURCH ADVENT EVENT & LUNCH NOVEMBER 29

Join us for a spectacular Advent Event on November 29 right after church. Bring your Thanksgiving dessert to share in Memorial Hall for an all church luncheon extravaganza – turkey soup & cornbread as well as a vegetarian offering, plus your desserts

There will be beautiful materials to make your own Advent Wreath, a Blessing of the Wreaths, and a special candle lighting song you can learn and share with your family throughout Advent. There will be a variation of wreath styles you can choose from (along with our church's traditional style) and the main materials you'll need to get started. Plus other fun crafts for all ages.

Please bring clippers for cutting greenery. And if you have greenery to contribute, we need that too! Greenery can be delivered to the church the week of November 22 and left outside Memorial Hall.

If you're interested in being involved, please contact Rachel Knuth: 823-8124 or RachelKnuth@uccseb.org. Helpers are needed for set up and clean up.

NEW LIFE FOR YOUR OLD EYEGLASSES

Those old eyeglasses in your junk drawer are a great gift to someone in Mexico or South America through the Lions In Sight collection program. Just put the glasses in the collection box in the church entry and they will be processed and eventually reach an eye glass clinic to help someone improve their vision. Old hearing aids are also in demand.

Here is an opportunity to re-use and recycle at the same time as helping someone in need. If you have any questions about the eyeglass collection program, please ask Jerry Coleman.

ADULT EDUCATION SUNDAY MORNING CLASS CONTINUES

Please join us Sundays at 9:30 in the Fireside Room for coffee and to discuss the scripture chosen for the sermon. We will begin the discussion with a brief insight into the pastor's view of the passage and pose questions for the group. We will read the passage, discuss it, and then listen to the Sunday sermon with a little more insight and hear what the pastor has to say.

You don't need to be a Bible scholar, just have the desire to delve into the Bible, one scripture at a time. We hope you will join us.

A candlelight service for all ages will feature our Children's Choir and a Christmas Pageant. We will enjoy a joyous celebration that will include the singing of familiar Christmas Carols and concludes with a candlelight recessional to the courtyard.

8:30 pm A Classic Service.

A more "traditional" service, featuring our Chancel and Handbell Choirs. We will also sing familiar carols, hear the Christmas Story and conclude with a candlelight recessional.

11:00 pm Acoustic Christmas Service.

Music for this service will be provided by our Folk Acoustic group and Handbell Quartet. We will sing familiar, carols with a different sound, and conclude our celebration of the Christ's nativity with our traditional candlelight recessional to the courtyard.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

We took a step back financially in October. Operating expenses exceeded revenue by $5,773. This wiped out our positive balance from the previous month and left us with an operating deficit of $1,761. Pledge income remained lower than expectations. We finished with income about $4,000 behind our 10 month projections, plate income remained strong, but income from facilities use lagged.

Please use December as an opportunity to bring your pledge up to date and perhaps even add a little extra Christmas gift for the church.

Women's Bible Study

WOMEN'S Bible Study

Women's Bible Study will meet on Wednesdays in December on the December 2 and 9 in the Fireside Room at 10 AM. We will break for Christmas and meet up again in the New Year. ## Service of Remembrance

DECEMBER 8

On the Second Tuesday of Advent, December 8th, at 7:00 PM in Faith Chapel, we will share in a special Service of Remembrance. For many of us, the joy and busyness of the holiday season is also marked with the memory of loved ones no longer with us. This quiet service of candlelight and reflection is the opportunity to pause for a moment and light a candle in memory of those who have meant so much to us. You are invited to bring a photograph or other remembrance to share.

GOOD NEWS!

Thanks to your generous support, the Community Church of Sebastopol was recognized as one of the top 100 UCC giving churches across the nation to the One Good Hour of Sharing offering in 2015. Read the 2014 OGHs Annual Mission Report: <http://www.uccfiles.com/pdf/2014MissionReportFinal.pdf> to find out how your gift touched lives in places where support was most needed. (2015 report will be out early next year.)

CHRISTMAS COLLECTION

Sebastopol Sunrise Rotary is collecting warm winter coats and new toys to hand out during a festive Christmas Dinner in our Memorial Hall on December 25 to help those in need. If you can contribute new or nearly new warm clothing and new toys for Santa to hand out on Christmas Day, please see Gail Thomas or call her at 758-0295. Also, if you would like to volunteer your time on Christmas Day or help with preparations, please contact Gail at 758-0295.

MISSION & OUTREACH

Mission & Outreach will meet at 10 AM on December 21 to gather the wrapped packages under the tree and all the items decorating the tree and deliver them to those in need. Please be sure to have your package under the tree before Monday morning!

SATURDAY TABLE

On the second Saturday of each month, Mission & Outreach serves lunch in Fellowship Hall to our local homeless population. In addition to offering a hot meal, we also offer showers, laundry vouchers and bus passes. If you would like to contribute to this effort, there are several ways to help:

- ❖ Cash and check can be made out to the Community Church and designated for the homeless lunch
- ❖ Soaps, shampoos and conditioner in sample or motel sizes
- ❖ Thick tube socks, sweat shirts, jackets, etc.
- ❖ Men's walking/athletic shoes or boots
- ❖ Tarps, rain ponchos, back packs
- ❖ Disposable razors and shaving cream
- ❖ Packaged toothbrushes & toothpaste
- ❖ Hand sanitizer, Chapstick, insect repellent and sun screen

Clothing items to do not have to be new, but they must be usable and clean. Look for the collection bin in the church entry to drop off your donations. Monetary donations should be left in the church office. For more information or to volunteer, contact Joanne Matson at 823-5249 or the church office at 823-2484.

SLEEPING BAGS

Winter is here and we have had a number of requests for sleeping bags. If you have a clean, useable sleeping bag to donate, please bring it to the church office and we will see that it gets put to good use. Thank you!

NEW MEETING DATES FOR 2016

Starting in January of 2016, Mission & Outreach will meet on the 2nd Monday of each month, still at 7 PM in the Fireside Room. The next meeting will be January 11, 2016.
