From the Pastor

As I look ahead to the new year, I am reminded of a "Peanuts" cartoon. Charlie Brown is talking to Pig-Pen, as always covered with "the dust of countless ages." Charlie Brown says to him, "I think everyone admires your independent spirit, Pig-Pen. You have remained dirty when everyone else was clean."

"Oh, I've been independent all right," he says. "But lately it's been difficult. Times change... we all grow a little older each day. I'll tell you frankly, Charlie Brown... I'm scared!"

I believe I have some understanding of what he was feeling. In the year ahead, things are going to be changing in a big way for me and for this church that we love. And, like Pig Pen as he contemplates change, I'm just a little scared. I enter 2016 as your pastor; I will exit 2016 as your retired former pastor. Even as I write that sentence, there is a part of me that still can't quite believe it. Who will I be if I'm not the minister of The Community Church? What will this community of faith be when I am no longer a part of it? Considering where I have been every Christmas Eve since 1978, Christmas Eve 2016 should be interesting indeed! And I could say that about so many things. I am going to miss so much about our life together. Yes, I'm just a bit scared. And yet, also curious and excited about what comes next in my life. Clearly I am moving into what for me is undiscovered country where I need to be ready to embrace new possibilities, maybe even redefine myself.

And I'm thinking that is true for our church as well. I have often preached about a God who brings hopeful new beginnings from every ending, and that could very well be the theme for this year in the church. Ending a ministry of almost 38 years is no small thing. But neither is beginning new ministries with new people and new ideas. I see it already in the work of Lydia and Rachel – new approaches to Advent, fund-raising, the use of Facebook, Christian Education and pastoral care. I'm guessing that this dynamic community of faith will scarcely miss a beat when the new Senior Minister arrives.

Yes, we will share laughter and tears between now and the end of April. How can we not? We will do a lot of looking back. How can we not? Ah, but there is so much to look forward to. Do not fear... the best is yet to be.

Gene

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Join Grief Counselors Harry & Susanna Simms in the Fireside Room on Thursday evenings at 7PM as they facilitate a support group dealing with the pain of grief. Losing a loved one, whether it be a recent loss, or from years past, can be difficult to process. Please call Harry or Susanna at 829-7769 if you have any questions. The group meets each Thursday at 7PM in the Fireside Room. There is no charge and the group is open to all.

ADULT EDUCATION SUNDAY MORNING CLASS CONTINUES

Please join us Sundays at 9:30 in the Fireside Room for coffee and to discuss the scripture chosen for the sermon. We will begin the discussion with a brief insight into the pastor's view of the passage and pose questions for the group. We will read the passage, discuss it, and then listen to the Sunday sermon with a little more insight and hear what the pastor has to say. You don't need to be a Bible scholar, just have the desire to delve into the Bible, one scripture at a time.

Baked Goods for Sunday Coffee Hour

We need to stock up with goodies to share during our Coffee Hour! If you have cookies, cake or some kind of treat we can serve after church, please bring it by the church wrapped for the freezer and we can save it for next Sunday. Thanks!

Minister of Music, Brian Plaughter requests that you take a few moments and jot down the titles of your favorite hymns to help with future worship planning. Please leave this in the collection plate or in the church office.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

The good news is that we finished the month of November with a positive operating balance of $465, very good news when you consider that we entered the month with an operating deficit of $1761. Pledge, plate and facilities income were all strong. We finished the month a little over a thousand dollars under our projected pledge revenue for 11 months, and plate revenue continued to exceed our projections. Hopefully a strong month in December financially will put us over our projections.

During November and into December, we were also off to strong start to our stewardship campaign. As of December 16th, we had received 96 operating pledges totaling $223,249. That put us about $21,000 ahead of where we were at the same time in 2014. We were still waiting to hear from a number of households, but again it has been a good beginning. The Trustees and Church Council will have a combined budget meeting on January 13th. It would be immensely helpful to have received as many pledges as possible by that date.

CHURCH COUNCIL & BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Church Council and the Board of Trustees will hold a joint meeting on Wednesday, January 13, at 7 pm in the Media Room to finalize the 2016 budget.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR

Children (age 6-11) are invited to choir practice on Sunday mornings at 9:30 AM in the Choir Room. The children will practice on January 10, 17, 24 and 31. [REDACTED]

NEW MEMBERS

New members will be received into The Community Church on Sunday, January 24th on Annual Meeting Sunday, during the worship service. If you are interested in church membership or in learning more about the Community Church and church membership, please contact Rev. Nelson or call the church office 823-2484 ext.100 to schedule a time to meet with him.

We will begin the discussion with a brief insight into the pastor's view of the passage and pose questions for the group. We will read the passage, discuss it, and then listen to the Sunday sermon with a little more insight and hear what the pastor has to say.

THE GIFT OF CLEAN LAUNDRY!

Did you know our church provides a very basic service to our local neighbors in need – laundry vouchers! Your gift of $5 provides a wash and dry for a large load of laundry at Wash Plus on Bodega Avenue. This is a much needed and much appreciated service, especially during the wet winter months.

Cash or checks marked “laundry” may be left in the collection plate or sent to the church office. What an easy and thoughtful way to help others! If you have any questions, please contact Joanne Matson at 823-5249.

RECYCLE INKJET CARTRIDGES FOR HABITAT

Leave your empty inkjet cartridges in the green cardboard box in the church office and Mission & Outreach will be able to turn them into cash to help fund our pledge to Habitat for Humanity. Please bring the cartridges in a sealed plastic baggie and Mission & Outreach will take care of the rest. What could be easier!

Baptism

Callen Maglio Warner was baptized into the family of Christ during the worship service on December 13, officiated by Rev. Gene Nelson. We rejoice with parents Deidra and Chris Warner as Callen begins his walk in the Christian faith.

Memorial Service

Former Sebastopol resident and Community Church member Marcia (Myers) Safford passed away unexpectedly on November 18 at her home in Vancouver, Washington. Marcia was a member of our church choir and dedicated her time to transcribing sermons for Rev. Nelson. Her two sons, Grant and Scott were active in our church youth groups. A memorial service was held in Faith Chapel on December 19, officiated by Rev. Nelson. Our condolences to Grant and Scott and their families for the loss of their mother.

PASTORAL SEARCH COMMITTEE NEWS

The Search Committee continues to meet every Monday as we are now receiving applications for the Sr. Minister position. We are reviewing profiles and assimilating our interview list. Much of what we do at this point is of a confidential nature – but we will keep you posted with pertinent news of the process.

The Church Council approved working with Goodwill Industries to provide a donation container in the Danmar Street parking lot. There will be an attendant there, 8 hours a day, 7 days a week, and the container will be emptied each day. It will also be a source of income, providing $300 - $500 a month depending on volume of donations received. We will begin on a monthly trial basis and evaluate how it is going.
